Background

Mr. Minami is a partner at Nagashima Ohno & Tsunematsu, Tokyo, Japan. His practice focuses on M&A transactions and tax law matters. The latter include transfer pricing, international reorganizations, anti-tax-haven (CFC) rules, withholding tax issues and other international and corporate tax issues, and with respect to such matters he has acted as counsel in various tax disputes on behalf of major Japanese and foreign companies.

His recent achievements include the successful representation of a Japanese multi-national company in a transfer pricing dispute before the National Tax Tribunal, which resulted in the cancellation of an assessment of more than USD 100 million, and the successful representation of a U.S. based multi-national company in a tax dispute involving an international reorganization before the Japanese court, which resulted in the cancellation of an assessment of more than USD 1 billion.

Education and Experiences

Mr. Minami has an LLM degree in Corporate Law and Tax Law from the New York University School of Law, and an LLB degree from The University of Tokyo, Japan.

He serves as the Chair of the IFA and as a member of the Practice Council of the International Tax Program at New York University School of Law. He teaches at The University of Tokyo and Sophia Law School.
