Recent developments in international taxation |
Wednesday, 25 November 2020 | 15.00 – 17.00

Chair

Chloe Burnett (Australia)

The Recent Developments panel will explore what is new in international tax. The latest updates in the multilateral “pillars” proposals will be contrasted against divergent approaches in various countries. Predictions will be made about the outcome of these processes. The latest case law from around the world will be reviewed, particularly in the areas of tax treaties and transfer pricing, and fresh jurisprudence on the BEPS measures implemented so far. There will be debates and frequent interaction between the panellists and, as ever, late breaking news will be reported.
