Background

Vanida is an Associate Partner of PwC Thailand's M&A Tax Group. Vanida has considerable experience in M&A transactions in Thailand. She joined PwC Thailand in 1999.

Experiences

Vanida's experience covers: tax due diligence, vendor due diligence, carve-out projects, tax structuring, SPA advice, and tax modelling.

Vanida's tax due diligence experience covers the following business sectors: automotive part makers and steel makers, sugar mills, electrical and electronic part makers, consumer products, real estate and hospitality and logistics.

Vanida has advised on the taxation implications of both outward and inward investment, on mergers and acquisitions in Thailand and on international tax and cross-border transactions. She has assisted a large number of both strategic and financial buyers to acquire investments in Thailand.
